

CORPORATE HISTORY

Gartner coins the term ERP in 1990. Just one year later Bill and Lynne Henslee hire their first employee and form Henslee & Associates, Inc. specializing in ERP and custom business applications.

1991

Haitek becomes developer for State-of-the-Art Software's Acuity Financials (later Sage MAS 500) and begins development of Envision ERP - the next-generation of Shop IV in Microsoft VB and SQL.

1997

Anytime 500 supply chain suite introduced for Sage MAS 500 adding new features for manufacturers including Enhanced MRP, Sales Forecasting, Quality Control, Engineering Change Orders, and more.

2004

E2B introduces Anytime Collect – AR Management software, deployed from Microsoft Azure.

2010

ERP practice expands to include Sage 100c and Sage X3.

2014

Renewed focus on Cloud ERP – Divested of Epicor ERP Practice – Focus on Sage Intacct and Cannabis ERP.

2019

ERP practice expands to include Accumatica Cloud ERP.

2022

1988

e2b technologies founder Bill Henslee starts consulting. Forms Vista Systems in CA. Later returns home to Ohio.

1996

Company rebranded Haitek Solutions. Haitek's Shop IV manufacturing software born from enhancements to Thoroughbred Software's Solution-IV accounting on IBM RS6000 servers and UNIX.

2001

Sage acquires State of the Art in 1998 and then acquires Haitek Solutions in 2001. Envision ERP becomes 8 manufacturing modules in Sage 500. e2b technologies formed by former Haitek and Sage employees.

2009

E2B acquires Michigan-based Ambrose Software International. Epicor ERP practice is born. Office moves from Painesville to Chardon, OH.

2012

Anytime Assets cloud-based software introduced. Anytime Collect OEM with Epicor (Epicor Cash Collect).

2017

Intacct cloud accounting added to ERP portfolio. First innovate User Group Conference 9/12/17.

2021

Moved to our new location in Mentor, Ohio.